The Elms for

Nineteen Fifty-Eight

Elmhurst College

Elmhurst,
Illinois

With Sincere Appreciation . . .

. the Elms Staff and student body would like to dedicate this 1957-58 Elms to Dr. Rudolf G. Schade, Chairman of the Department of History. Since 1946, he has served Elmhurst in the fields of Greek, Christian Education, Philosophy, and History. During this time he has shown a creative interest in the campus and its welfare by assisting in extra-curricular activities.

Dr. Schade is a man obviously dedicated to a high purpose. His accented and jovial words have fallen on the ears of many students, who have been captured by his overflowing enthusiasm. His numerous contributions to campus life and the individual student have made Elmhurst College respect and esteem Dr. Schade as one of its foremost men.

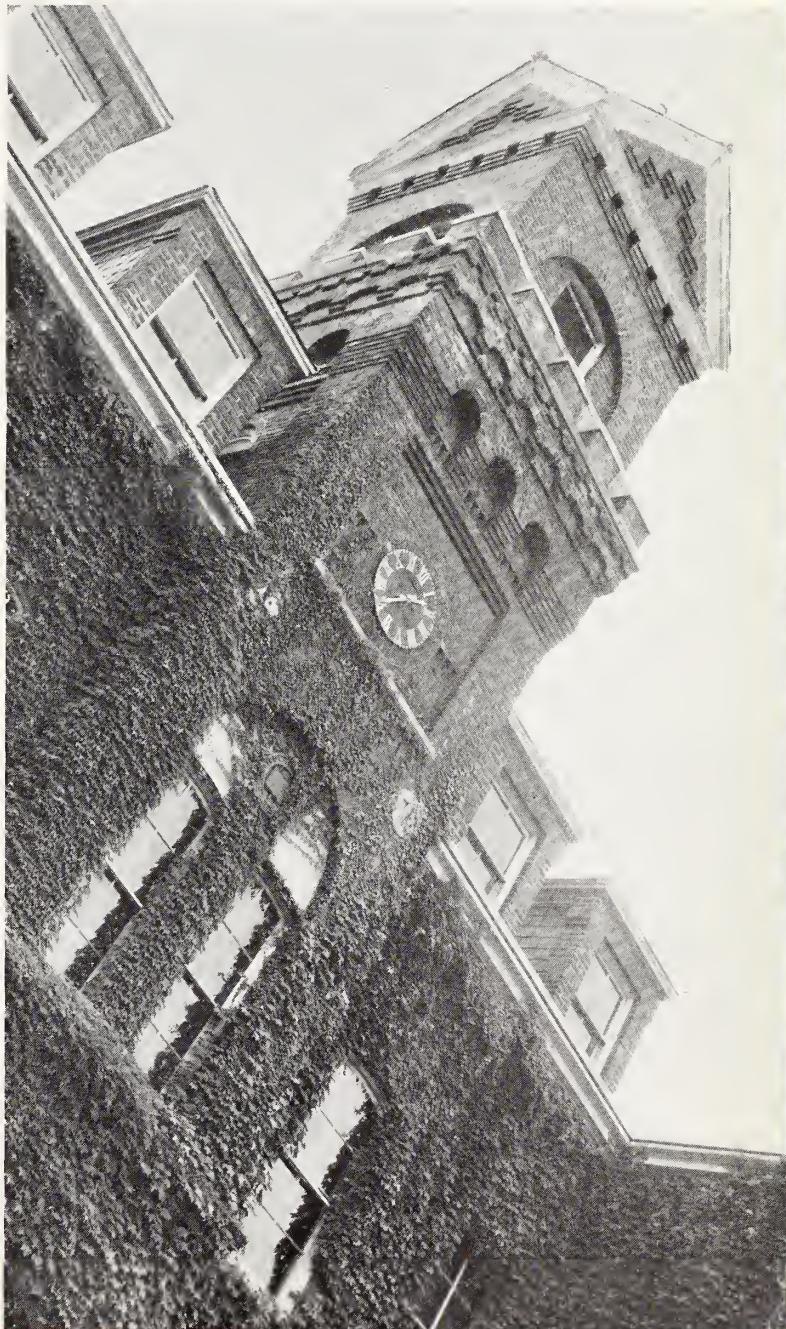

On the following pages the editors and members of the Elms Staff have tried to preserve an interesting and accurate picture of Elmhurst College during the year 1957-58.

As you leaf through and read these pages, may every enjoyment, and moment of pleasure return to you in the form of lasting memories of another year at Elmhurst College.

Halls of Ivy

South Hall serves as the Freshman and Sophomore women's dormitory and houses apartments for several members of the faculty and college staff. The theater scene shop is in the basement with its entrance on the west side of the building.

Two new wings were added in 1957 to the Memorial Library to meet the demands of an increasing enrollment and collection of 50,000 volumes.

The main entrance, a new Indiana limestone gateway, was donated and erected on the east side of the campus by Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Schless in 1953.

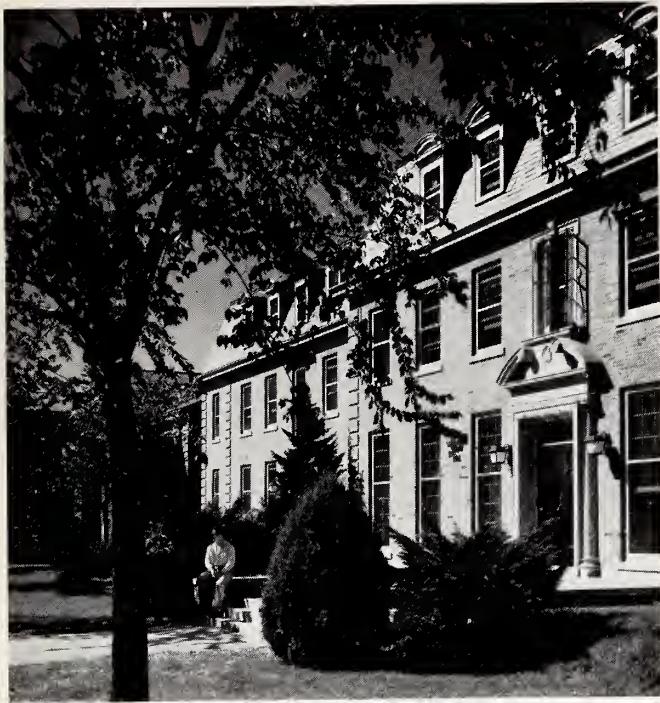

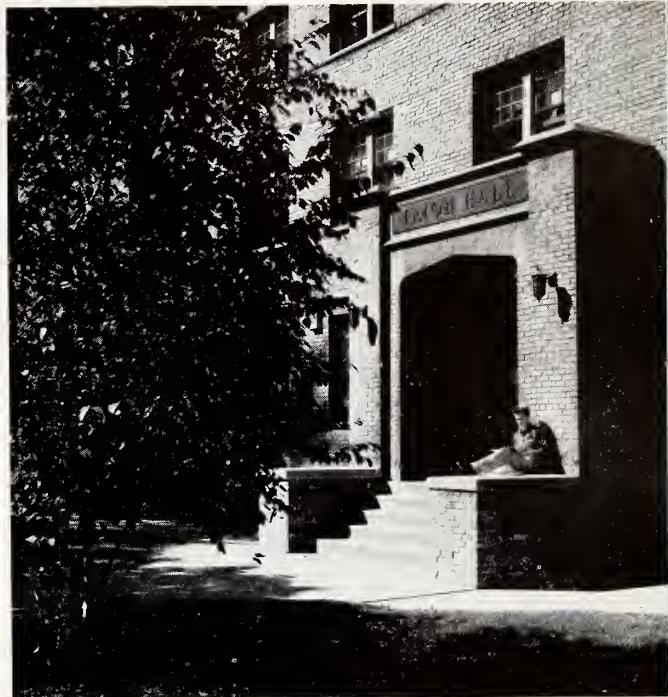

Old Main houses the main classrooms, laboratories, students' lockers, campus store, Student Union office, faculty room and offices, and the Leuder Memorial Chimes.

Kranz Hall, the oldest building on the campus, contains several classrooms, the speech clinic, custodians' apartments, WRSE, faculty conference rooms, and the Student Union snack bar.

Lehmann Hall, the upper class men's dorm, also houses the offices of the President and deans of the college, along with the general administrative offices.

Stained glass windows and a pipe organ add to the reverent atmosphere of the college chapel. In addition to the chapel, the Music School is located on the first floor of Irion Hall.

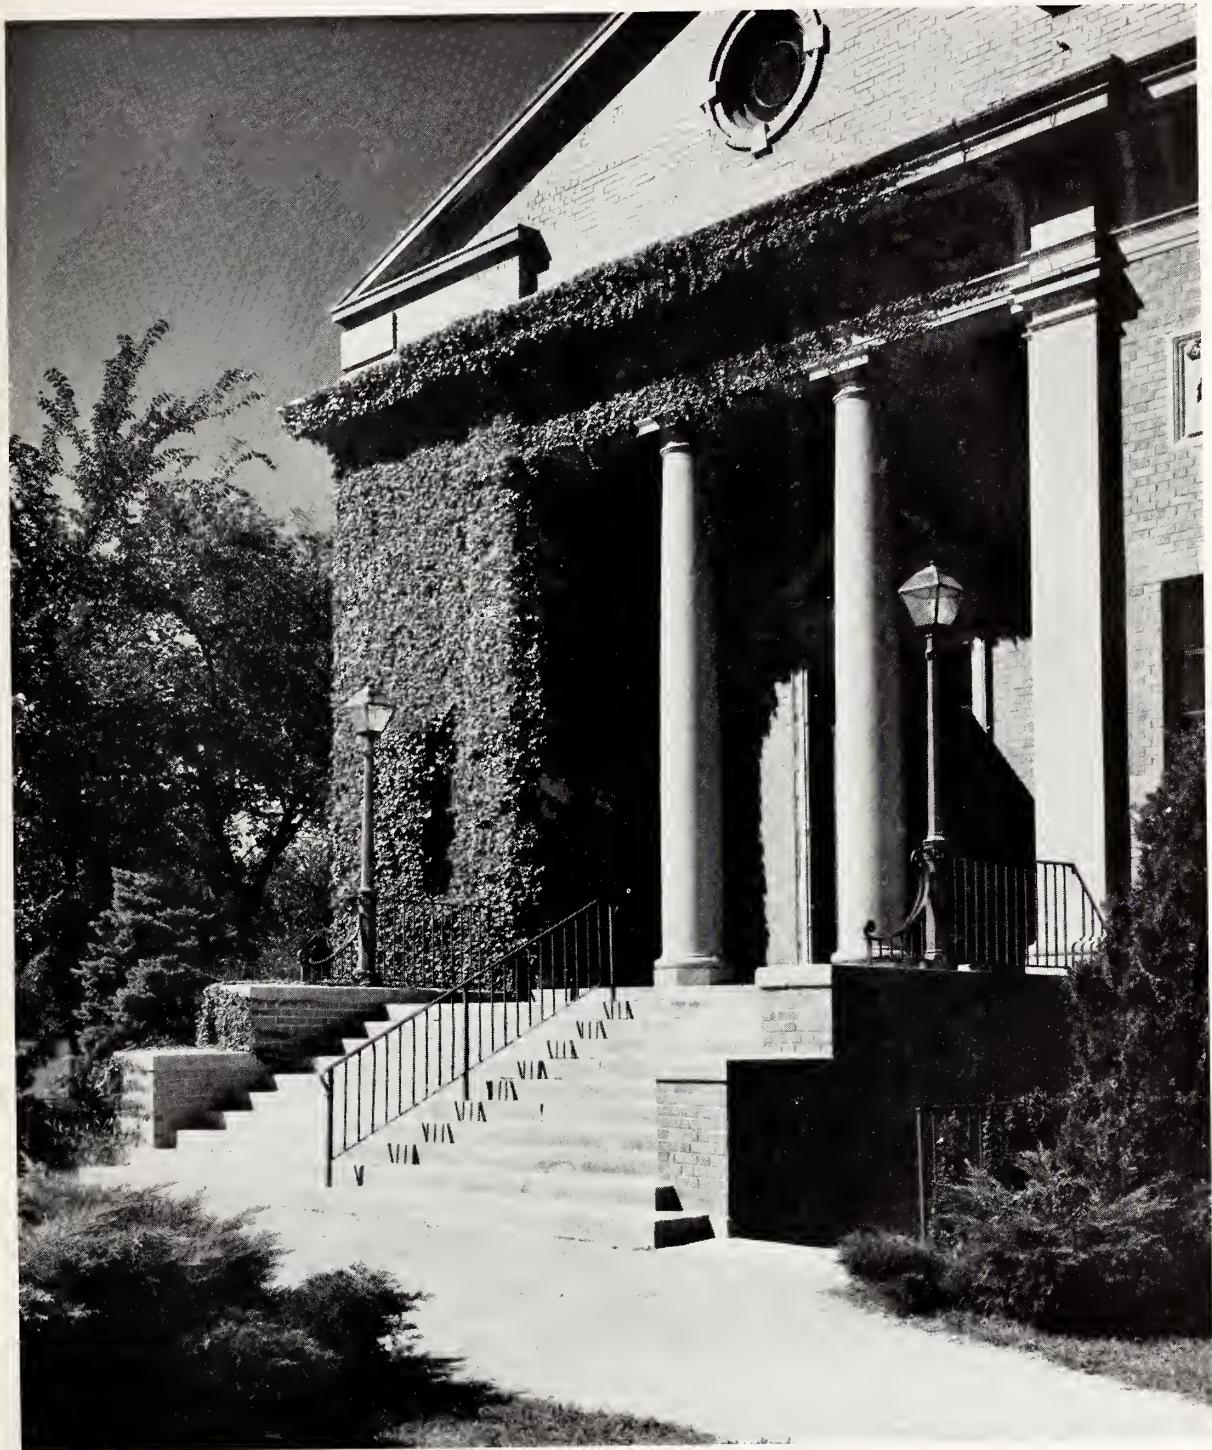

The Commons is utilized as living quarters for students and houses the infirmary, in addition to being the campus dining hall.

Dinkmeyer Hall, which was completed in 1956 and named in honor of the late President Dinkmeyer, is the home of the junior and senior women.

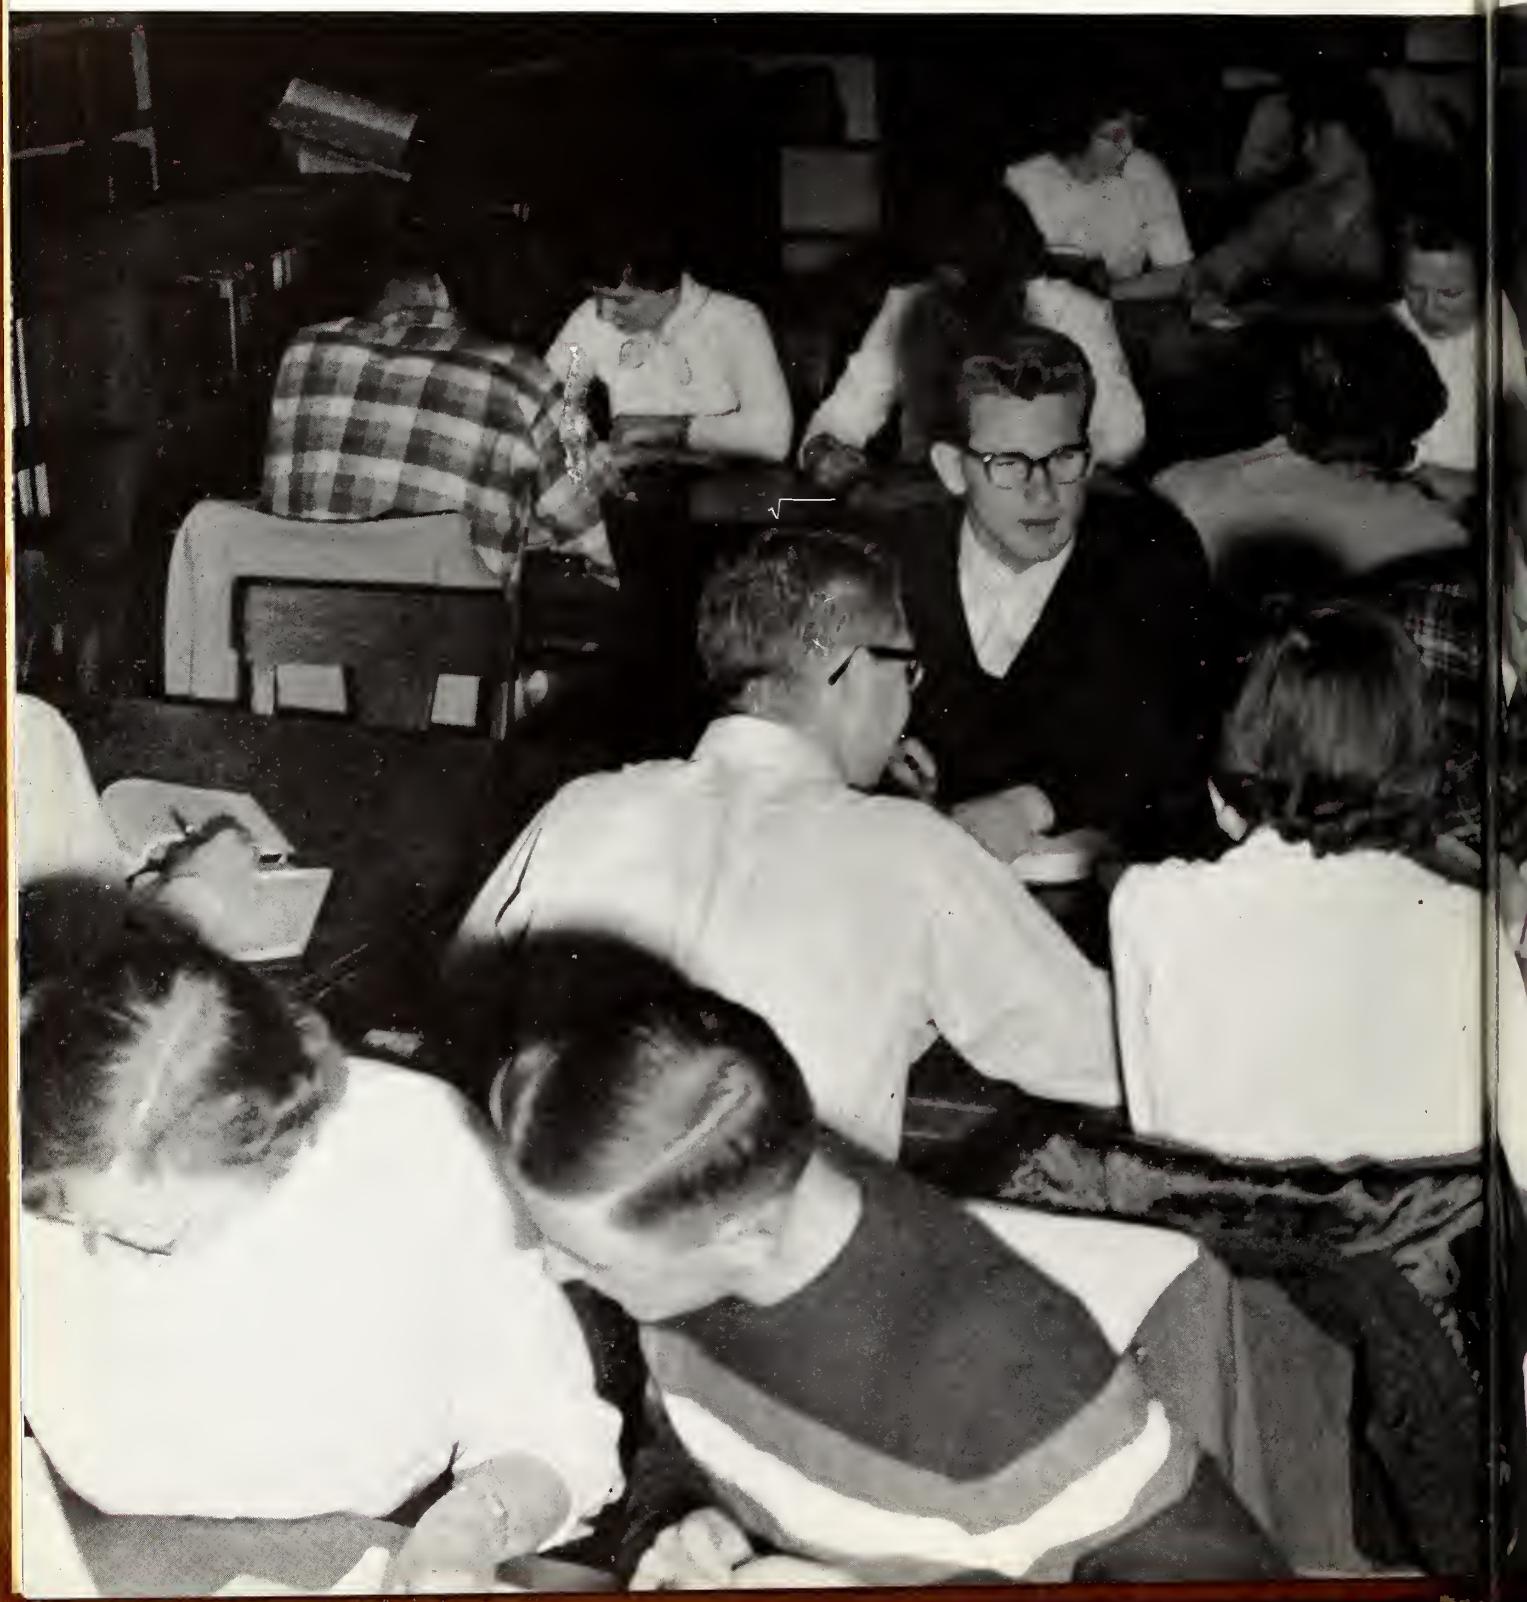

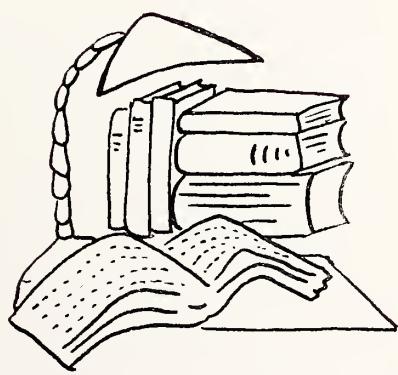

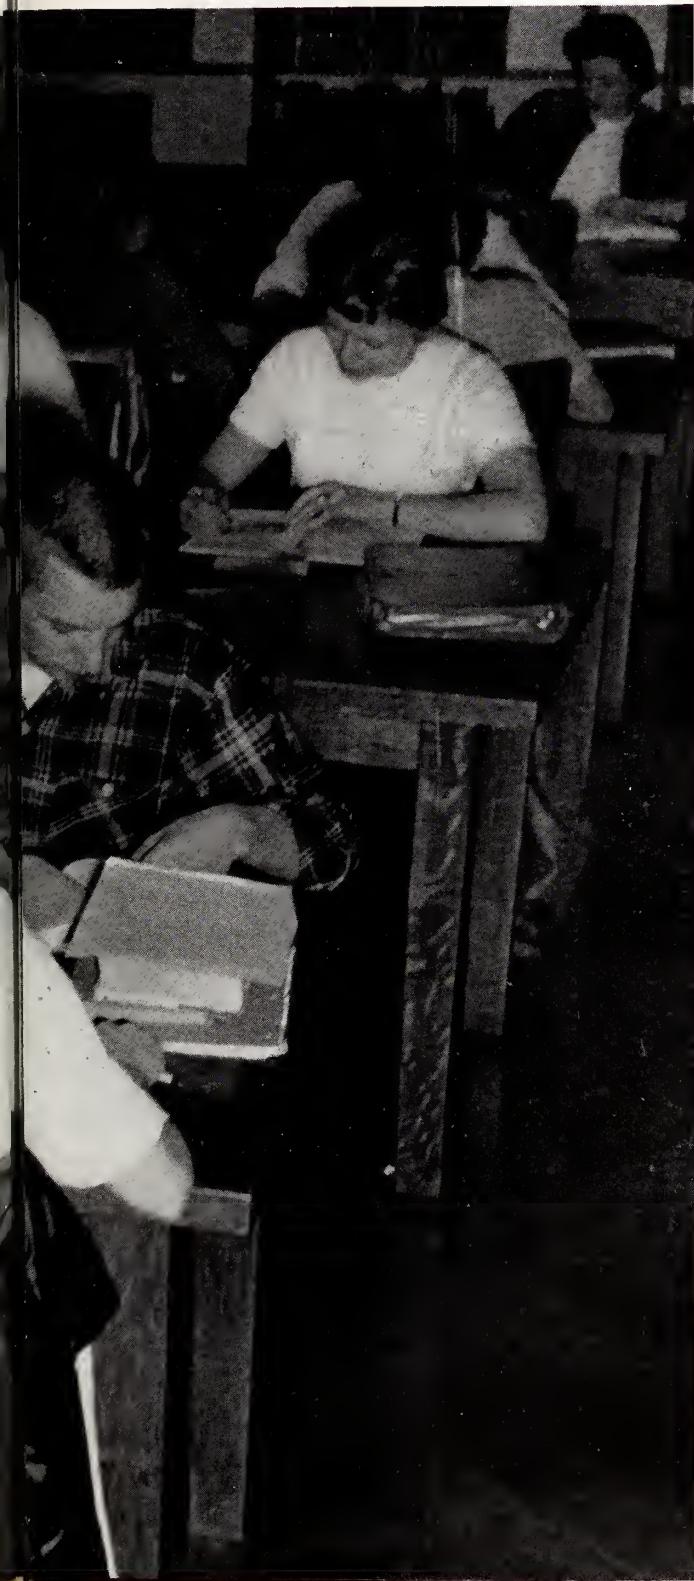

Irion Hall, which is devoted to double and triple rooms for freshmen and sophomore men, is located on the northeast part of the campus, facing Old Main.

All varsity indoor games, intramurals, physical education classes, and many college functions are held in the gym. A swimming pool has been the most recent addition to its facilities.

The Administration

The Board of Directors of Elmhurst College

Dr. ROBERT C. STANGER
President of the College

A warm welcome is extended to Dr. Robert C. Stanger, the ninth president of Elmhurst College.

Faced with the responsibility of appointing a successor to our late Dr. Dinkmeyer, the Board of Directors, sought someone who would be able to guide an entire student body in academic, social and personal decisions; who would know and love the college with deep understanding; and who would uphold its Christian standards. Dr. Robert Stanger was the man they chose.

Dr. Stanger was born and raised on the Elmhurst College campus. His father, Christian, taught French and Spanish here for fifty years. Dr. Stanger attended Elmhurst public schools and was graduated from E.C. in 1918. He followed the path of many E. C. pre-the students and went on to Eden Seminary in Missouri, where he graduated in 1921. He did his graduate work at Yale Divinity School in 1922. Going on to the University of Chicago, he received his M.A. in 1923. He served Grace Church in Chicago from 1923-1930. Called back to Elmhurst as a member of the faculty in 1930, he taught religion and ancient history. He was the minister of Bethel Church in Detroit, Michigan for fifteen years. The honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity was bestowed upon him by Heidelberg College in 1942. His last charge was Bethany Church in Chicago where he had succeeded Dr. Dinkmeyer. On August 1, 1957, Dr. Stanger's path again followed the footsteps of his lifetime friend, Dr. Dinkmeyer, this time to the presidency of Elmhurst College.

In the short time he has been President he has already endeared himself in the hearts of the faculty and the student body.

Welcome Dr. and Mrs. Stanger.

Seniors — The Class of 1958

As their names were called, 155 members of the Class of 1958 strode to the rostrum to receive their degrees; and then strode away to face new horizons in their chosen vocation or in graduate schools throughout the nation.

Under the sponsorship of Rev. J. W. Fiegenbaum, the Class of 1958 presented their class gift to be used in the Hammerschmidt Memorial Chapel.

While participating in the life of Elmhurst College during their four year stay, the seniors witnessed such things as the building and dedication of Dinkmeyer Hall, the construction of the library wings and the opening of the swimming pool, as well as the ground-breaking for the new chapel in which their president, Don Durrett, took part.

WALKS CAN BE INTERESTING!

An end and a beginning.

'It seems just like yesterday . . . '

That very important day

Juniors — The Class of 1959

Now they are Juniors, almost to the top of the ladder again. Each year they have worked together. The freshman year they had their dance, "Hearts In Harmony." Sophomore year they created the "Ebb Tide." Now came the crowning glory of all dances, the Junior prom, "Rhapsody In Red." This was a small part of their struggle up the ladder. Now they pause to think that the majority of their college years is behind them. There were those languages to conquer. Habla Espanol? Sprechen Sie Duetsch? Parlez-Vous Francais? The philosophy which they finally understood. Now they take a breath and plunge into their chosen majors. They have made friends, lasting friends. Soon they will be on top as Seniors and ready to go out into the world.

The twenties return! !

What a crooner! !

Sophomores — The Class of 1960

The class of 1960 first met in the fall of 1956. Working for the first time as a class they displayed their raw talent in the Freshman Talent Show. Later in their initial year they created their freshman dance though it was cancelled. Still they came through this disappointment as a class. They had finished their first year of college life. They had studied and worked together; the class of 1960 had unity.

For the second time they met, in the fall of 1957. This time the surroundings of campus were not strange, they were old friends. It was good to see the old campus and the "old" friends. The class of '60 had lost some faces and gained some new members. Soon they shaped up the annual sophomore square dance, which they promenaded through. The winter tested their ability to create with their sophomore semi-formal—"Hearts Desire."

Now the class of 1960 has half of their college years behind them. They have worked individually and together to create a good name for themselves and a class unity, both essential for the class of 1960.

Freshmen — The Class of 1961

"This was the first time" is a good title for the freshman class story. The first time they had met one another was the fall of 1957. The faces were so strange—at first. The campus and upperclassmen were so strange—at first. In fact everything was strange and new—at first. But by the end of Freshman Week they were accustomed to college life.

As the year progressed they carved themselves a place among the classes of Elmhurst College. The students within the class of 1961 got to know each other. They began their first college classes. How different they were from high school! Everything was

101. The essays to write; the verbs to memorize; the speeches to recite; the prophets to learn. The first college homecoming was new and busy. The dances were a bit better than high school. The final exams were a bit harder and longer. The freshmen tried to live up to best with their "Bermuda Hop" and the freshman dance.

The first year has flown by before their eyes. The freshman have three years before them to look forward to. They have begun the foundation and must continue building.

Football--1957

How about it? Let's make some yardage.

"You can't beat the Swaps's with the Francis's." These words, spoken by Coach Owen at Homecoming, provided a concise explanation for the exploits of the 1957 edition of the Bluejay eleven.

Hampered by lack of experience, depth, and speed, the EC gridders were able to capture only one victory in eight encounters. They failed to win a single start in CCI competition, scoring on only three opponents—Concordia, Augustana, and Illinois Wesleyan. All were home contests.

An unusual optimism surged through the campus as the EC eleven opened the season with a 20-0 victory over Concordia. Bob Castner rambled for three touchdowns, gaining over 200 yards. A capacity crowd, hoping for another victory, was on hand to see the CCI opener against Wheaton, but the Crusaders romped to a 70-0 win as they blocked four Jay punts.

We're with you!

FOOTBALL TEAM:

Row one: M. Campbell, T. Prange, S. Hall, M. Jeffrey, R. Brandon, J. Minter, D. Frandsen, G. Relos, J. Kulton, H. Bussa, R. Raymon-asst. coach.

Row two: D. Woosley, C. Falk, M. Lang, R. Potrykus, J. Podpora, R. Castner, J. Fielding, T. Eddy, R. Sander, R. Tabott, H. Owen - Head Coach.

Row three: J. Panagakos, W. Decker, D. Manning, D. Podpora, C. Christianson, K. Runge, C. Brueske - Manager.

Lopsided losses to Millikin, 50-0, and Carroll, 71-0, plunged Elmhurst morale to a season low, but just as it seemed the Owenmen had no more to give they turned in their finest performance of the year at Homecoming, only to lose to Augustana, 20-12. A Miller to Lou Morenweiser aerial put the Jays into a 6-0 lead early in the first quarter. The Vikings led at halftime 7-6, but Castner bolted over from the three to put EC back into the lead. Capitalizing on Augie fumbles, the Bluejays maintained the lead until late in the game, when Augustana came back with two TD's, much to the dismay of the enthusiastic Homecoming crowd.

The next week the footballers traveled to Lake Forest, only to receive a 46-0 drubbing at the hands of the CCI co-champs. In Elmhurst's final home stand, the following week Illinois Wesleyan journeyed to EC in a battle for the CCI cellar. After a scoreless first quarter, IWU began to roll as they romped over EC, 47-20.

Hoping to repeat last year's upset, the Jays concluded the season at North Central. The revived Cardinal gridders outclassed the Owenmen, 32-0 as Captain Harold "Cuz" Miller, along with linemen Lou Morenweiser, Bill Decker, and Don Woosely played their final game for EC.

Once again the Jays finished in the cellar. It is comparatively easy to make excuses. It is difficult to face facts. The Elmhurst eleven simply did not have the material to cope with their opponents. Amid criticism, the seasonal "subsidize, or drop football," and an outright flippancy, thirty men found within themselves the guts to face a superior opponent in every conference encounter. But guts without adequate material does not win football games. This is why the Jays lost.

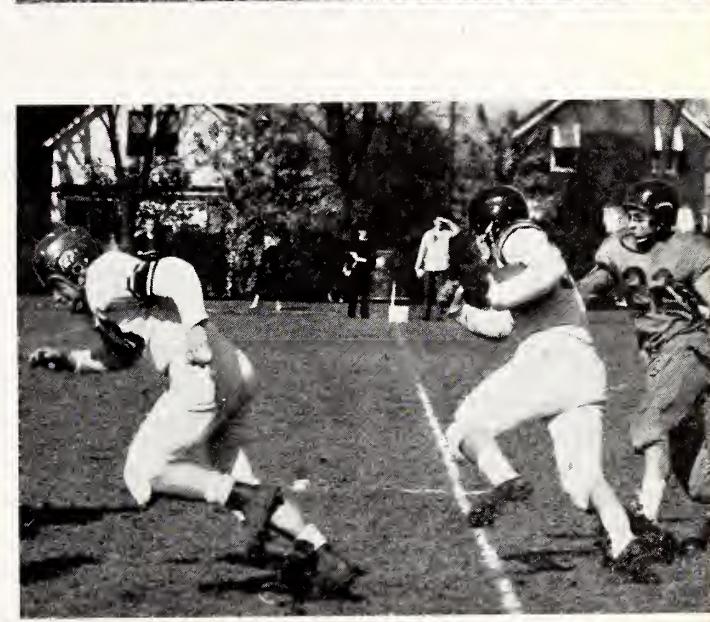

There's a tumble ahead for somebody.

Someone's always in the way!

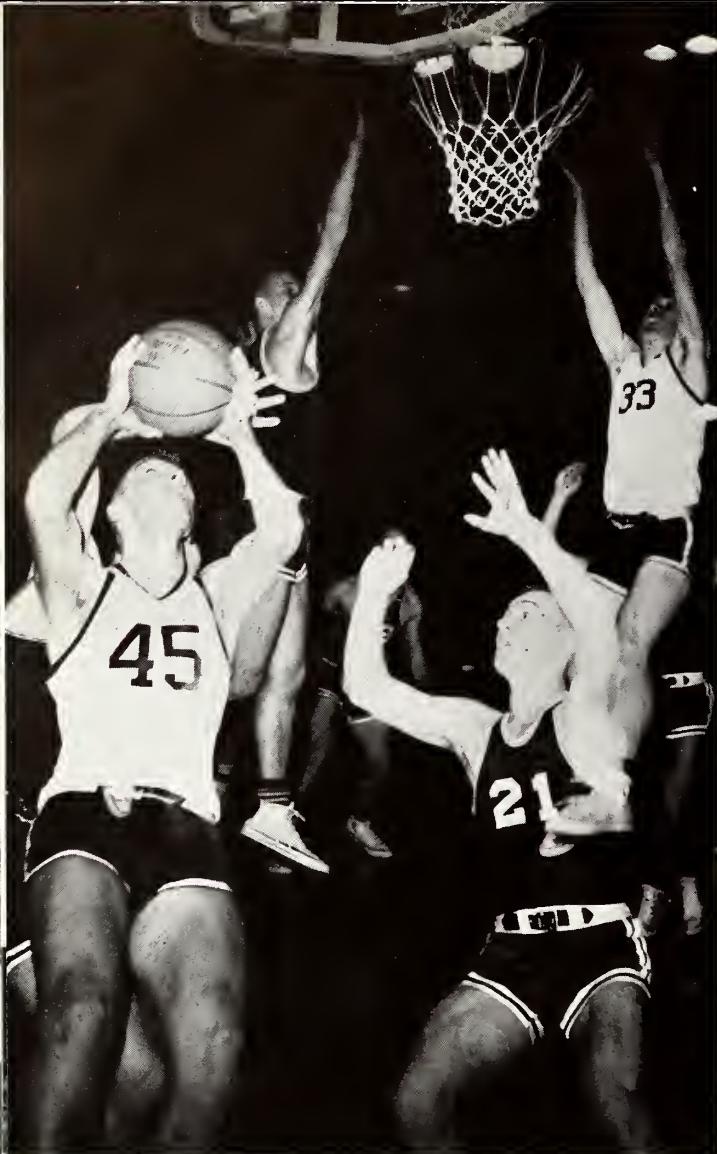

We want a touchdown!

Blocking counts.

It's a basket any way you look at it.

Sink it!

Basketball '57 - '58

The 1958 basketball team provided perhaps the most exciting and successful play that Elmhurst fans have seen in many seasons. The team lived up to pre-season predictions with a second place finish in the CCI. This is the highest rung the team has ever reached on the ladder pointing to the CCI crown. They won first place in the Lakeland Holiday Tournament by defeating Whitewater and Augustana. The eventful year finished with the team receiving an invitation to the NAIA tournament in Quincy.

The first half of the season found the Bluejays losing only to Wheaton in conference play and entering the second round with a 6-1 record. Many tense moments were provided in these games as four of the victories were by margins of five points or less. Non-conference defeats had been handed the team by a surprisingly strong Illinois Tech quintet and by Beloit.

The second round of conference play proved less successful as the Bluejays won only three of seven contests. However, clutch victories over Millikin and Carroll to close out CCI play cinched second place for the local forces.

Go to the tourney, fight as a team, win for the school.

As a result of their winning second place in the CCI, the basketball team was invited to play in the Quincy Regional of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics tournament. This marked the first time an Elmhurst team had ever been invited to a post-season tournament.

A group of over fifty students put aside classes and formed a caravan to accompany the team in quest of its victory. Although the team lost a closely fought contest to first-seeded Eastern Illinois, the play of our team prompted the Quincy paper sports' editor to say "Elmhurst exhibited one of the smoothest offensive patterns seen here all season during the first half. In fact, the longest shots taken by the team all night were free throws."

This final game of the year exemplified the play of the team during so much of the regular season. Only through hard work, determination, a will to win and top-rate leadership were the Bluejays able to reach such a lofty pedestal.

For the second consecutive year, Joel Herter and Dick Stanger were named to the second string, all conference team of the C.C.I. Herter, a junior guard, ranked 5th in conference scoring with an average of 16.0. Stanger, senior forward, ranked 7th in conference scoring with an average of 15.0.

Intra-Murals

Peter Schmiechen, Athletic chairman, Sharon Kelly, Women's Intramural Chairman

The Intra-mural program is designed to provide athletic competition through team play for all men students. This past year Intra-mural leagues were formed throughout the year in three sports. In the fall touch football was sponsored, including two dorm games between Irion and Lehmann. At Homecoming the students played the alumni and proved to possess the better team. During the winter two basketball leagues were organized, with five teams in each league. Dorm games were also played, along with a class tournament in which the Sophomores became the champs. At spring time softball teams were again formed under a league organization. The Class track meet is another highlight of the spring season.

Cheerleaders

This year there were eight girls on the cheering squad. In the beginning of the year they elected Suzanne Matez, a sophomore, as captain of the squad. The captain is responsible for group action and progress. She helps make practices efficient and eliminates arguing. The captain and the other girls are always looking for new ways to be of assistance to their school.

In addition to Sue the cheerleaders were made up of Mary Zulauf, a junior; Lila Shyberg, a senior; Sandy Haese, a sophomore; and Pat Billings, a sophomore. Pat Patricks, a junior; Jae Ziegler and Nancy Place both sophomores were chosen alternates. This year Jan Brown, a junior, was student advisor for the cheerleaders.

Cheerleading is very strenuous and requires a great deal of endurance. For this reason the girls practice one hour daily; during this time they gain precision and are constantly creating and initiating new cheers. The duty of a cheerleader is to attend every game and to exert a desirable influence on others. She must be a good sport, respect rights of others, have tolerance, graciousness, courtesy and self-control. Truly the girls try to live by Stuart Symington's definition of sportsmanship, which is "Honest rivalry, courteous relations and graceful acceptance of results."

The Chapel Choir

Seated: A. Menzel, W. Mueller, Standing: W. Rumpf, M. Kralik, B. Ehekircher.

The Chapel Choir, originally organized to furnish music for the College Chapel services, has now developed into a forty-voice concert choir. Its large repertoire regularly includes a wide variety of the best in sacred music, as well as a select number of lighter and more secular tunes.

During the past year, the Choir, in addition to its regular Chapel appearances, made a week-end tour through Michigan as far as Detroit. Of course the highlight of the year was the extended spring tour which took the Choir east to Philadelphia. But, despite the scenery and fun that naturally goes with such a tour, by far the most rewarding part of it for the choir was being able to lead congregations in worship, through song, and to tell others about Elmhurst.

The recessional ends another concert of inspirational music.

It's time to go on tour and everyone's enthused.

Men's Glee Club

"Music should have no other end and aim than the glory of God and the recreation of the soul; where this is kept in mind there is true music."

Schweitzer

Keeping in mind the above quotation the Glee Club had a successful year with many local concerts, chapel assemblies, a television performance, and Spring Tour, which took them to Ohio, Indiana, and Kentucky. The director, Mr. David Austin, took his thirty "Charges" in hand for ten days of vigorous singing at many new and beautiful churches. Those wonderful days were packed with memorable happenings such as: the "horse" race at Churchill downs, the surprise birthday barbecue party for Robbie the bus driver, The Big show in Dayton, The Indianapolis Speedway, a visit to Ohio State University, and those unforgettable concerts. Put these together and you have a year filled with good music, and many enjoyable experiences for all.

Polyhymnia

This year, in addition to concerts in the Chicago-area, Polyhymnia went on a Spring tour and a weekend tour. The weekend tour, which occurred in February, included concerts in northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin. Spring Tour took Poly to Iowa, Nebraska, Wisconsin and Minnesota. Some of the highlights of this trip were visits to Boy's Town, Nebraska, Mayo Clinic, a picnic in Minnesota and visits to many other colleges and universities, including Grinnell, Iowa State, University of Iowa, McCallister, Carroll and Lakeland.

Each year Poly ends their season together with a banquet. This spring the banquet was held at Kungsholm Restaurant where the girls enjoyed the miniature opera, Carmen, after a smorgasbord dinner.

Religion-In-Life Week

This year's Religion-In-Life Week served as a witness to the whole campus community that the Christian faith and life are important to us. It was an opportunity, outside of our regular activities, to arouse the interest of students in a more meaningful college life. Rev. John Fitzgerald of the Seabury Foundation was the principal speaker and Rev. Myles Walburn and Rev. Bert Helm were the auxiliary speakers. The stimulating guest leaders pointed out the importance of religion in our daily thoughts and lives.

The Pre-Theological Christian Education Society

The purpose of the Pre-Theological and Christian Education Society is to further the understanding of Christian service through worship, educational programs, discussion, and fellowship, with a special reference to the thoughts and lives of those students on the campus who wish to enter the Christian ministry or Christian education.

The group has now been in existence for 12 years. It is directed by a steering committee which consists of faculty advisors, a Christian education representative, and a pre-the representative from each class.

The programs usually consist of speakers or discussions of topics relevant to this vocational area. During the 1957-58 year, the speaker program consisted of the missionary Rev. Carl Schweitzer, Rev. Nishimoto of Kenwood-Ellis Community Center, Dr. Robert Moss of Lancaster Seminary, and Dr. F. Schroeder of Eden Seminary.

Hungarian "goodies"—a new treat for Elmhurst Americans.

"The Student Christian Association is a fellowship of students and faculty members who by study, worship and service are seeking to understand Christ and, in His Spirit, to serve their fellowmen on the campus in the nation, and throughout the world"—SCA Constitution.

Less Papp, SCA President, along with the other SCA officers and members, endeavored this year, as always, to fulfill its stated purpose. As the only all-campus Christian Club, it sought God's will through discussing issues, hearing speakers and examining the Bible. In an effort to serve their fellow students the SCA members sponsored various things, such as a trip to Chicago to visit the Church of Deliverance, a between-semesters retreat and an international night. Through its affiliation with the Illinois Area Y.M.C.A., it was able to send Elmhurst students to interesting, inspirational, and intellectual conferences which are arranged by the Y.M.C.A. and Y. W. C. A. of Illinois.

Chapel Assembly and Vespers

Vesper services are held every Sunday afternoon and Monday and Wednesday evenings throughout the school year. Students lead most of these worship services. There was a special service preceding the Thanksgiving and the Christmas holidays. Before the Easter holiday a communion service was held for those who wished to attend.

Chapel services for the student body and the faculty are held every Tuesday and Thursday morning during the first semester. Speakers for these services were both faculty and visiting personalities. This year a new policy was tried during the second semester, in which an assembly type of program was held on Tuesday mornings and a chapel service on Thursday mornings. These services and programs added much to the lives of those who attended.

The Student Union

"Student government on any college campus is a vital sounding board of student opinion and the one concrete manner by which their opinions may be translated into action." This philosophy of student government, set forth by President Dick Stanger, guided the Student Union through a stormy, but successful year.

Among the SU's accomplishments this year were the reorganization of the intramural program, the reallocation of funds in regard to the new $25,000 SU budget, the amendment of the constitution, the securing of an SU office in Old Main, and the purchase of a new TV set for the Student Union Store. The SU also laid plans for a new lounge and for a Freshman initiation program.

The Student Union cabinet, consisting of six officers and four standing committee chairmen, comprises the executive branch of the Student Union.

The cabinet is responsible for carrying out the legislation of the Senate. It also acts as a mediator between the student body, faculty, and administration. Monthly student-faculty-administration meetings provide a means of ironing out campus problems before they reach crisis form.

The Senate, or legislative branch of student government, is unique in CCI schools. It insures equal representation of all student groups. The college population is divided first by class and then by place of residence. The ratio of representation is one to twenty.

The Senate is responsible for allocating funds out of the budget to the organizations for which the Student Union is financially responsible. The individual senator is able to bring to the senate the wishes of the group which he represents, to vote on cabinet recommendations and to initiate legislation.

The Student Union Senate

Through the Student Senate, each individual enrolled at Elmhurst College has a voice in the representative government which prevails on Elmhurst's campus. Representation in Senate is based on one member for each 20 members or major fraction thereof (11 members) in each subdivision. The representative groups, seniors, juniors, sophomores, and freshmen, are subdivided into women dormitory residents, men dormitory residents, men non-dormitory residents, and women non-dormitory residents (non-dormitory residents also include married students living either in the barracks or off-campus).

Election of senators takes place in April, and a senator serves in Senate usually from April 16 of one year to April 15 of the next, with the exception of the freshmen senators who are elected between the sixth and tenth week of the fall term.

Along with the Executive Cabinet, the Student Senate enacts legislation, which is pertinent to the student body. It is, therefore, the students' privilege and duty to elect senators who will best represent them and their interests through active, responsible participation in Senate.

Debate Team

The Debate Team is an organization open to all students interested in participating in contests, both within the college and inter-collegiately. The members of the Elmhurst College Debate Team are also members of the Chicago Area Association of Debate. Inter-collegiate debates are held four to six times a semester and the team attends regional tournaments. This year the team won five and lost eleven debates in tournament competition. The debate proposition for 1957-1958 was, resolved: that the requirement of membership in a labor organization as a condition of employment should be illegal.

Elmbark Staff

The Elm Bark took on a new face for the 1957-'58 school year: four 11 x 16 inch pages of pure white paper. Harold Schmalfeld and Robert Siever as 1st semester co-editors steered the "Bark" through difficulties of copy shortage and inability to obtain a printer. Fairchild Printing Company of Bensenville was finally contracted to print the paper, using a photo-offset process.

Clement Dippel and Robert Siever served as co-editors for the second semester. Prof. William Barclay acted as faculty advisor for the entire year.

The readers found editorials on apathy, chapel attendance, a political (?) column called Inquiry, Campus Comedy cartoons, charactatures of faculty members drawn by Dick Buck, Ken's Corner on the sports page, that they hadn't won a free malt, and occasionally some news. The most read item in the paper On and Off Campus, caught everyone interested in the latest gossip.

1958 Elms Staff

This year the Elms staff is bringing to the student body a new type of year book. The change is primarily in the process of making the pictures. Instead of printing a lithographed book the staff arranged to print an engraved book. This means that each picture requires a separate engraved plate. This process promised a finer quality of picture and naturally a more enjoyable book at which to look throughout the years.

The "E" Club

The "E" Club has been in existence since the presentation of the first athletic award at Elmhurst. Its objective is the creation of a close unity among the lettermen who, through their efforts in various fields of sport, have earned a letter in the particular sport in which they have excelled.

The Club seeks to make the athletic program of EC a vital and progressive part of the activities of the College. One of the outstanding social and athletic events for which the Club is responsible is the election of the "Queen and her court" who preside over the Elmhurst Inter-Collegiate Track Meet held each spring.

Firesides Committee

This year's topics included: "Hazing—Pro & Con," "The Proper 'Administration' of School Spirit," and "The New-Look in Education." The attendance and participation in "FIRESIDES" was the largest witnessed in four years. The year's program was outlined by the "FIRESIDES" Co-Chairmen, Sylvia Holtman and John Modschedler.

"FIRESIDES" is a friendly, informal gathering of the students at the homes of our various faculty members for the purpose of discussing pertinent issues which are of particular interest to the students and the school in general. At the same time the purpose of establishing a closer relationship between student and faculty member—one of the ultimate goals of the smaller college—is accomplished. After what is almost invariably a very lively discussion led by a student discussion leader, the group adjourns to refreshments provided by a student host and hostess and to more general conversation.

The Student National Education Association

In 1947, the only nationally affiliated organization at Elmhurst College, the Student Education Association, formerly known as FTA, was made a local chapter of both the National Education Association and the Illinois Education Association. Formed with the idea that the Student National Education Association (SNEA) should offer training in leadership and provide a place where a greater knowledge of the field of education can be gained, the Elmhurst chapter, along with other chapters across the country, has been giving teachers-to-be the opportunity to participate actively in associations on both national and state levels with which they will be connected as soon as they enter their profession and for contact and discussion with educators specializing in all phases of the education system. Elmhurst's SNEA has also provided a place where students who are preparing to enter the teaching profession can exchange ideas, discuss problems and methods, and gain further insight into teaching through programs and activities aimed not at any one level on the educational ladder, but of interest to all, whether one is a future kindergarten or high school teacher.

The Lecture Series

This year the Lecture Series brought to the Elmhurst College Campus four able speakers who discussed one of the most crucial and controversial issues in the field of world affairs: nationalism.

Opening the Series was Hans Kohn, Professor of History at the City College of New York, who spoke on "Western Nationalism in the World Today". He was followed by Clarence B. Randall, Chairman of the Council on Foreign Economic Policy. Mr. Randall proved well-qualified to speak on "The Effect of Nationalism on Foreign Economic Policy". T. V.

Smith, an outstanding philosopher and professor at Syracuse University, presented "Wholes That Are Larger Than Their Parts". Concluding the timely series was Wallace Irwin, Jr. Member of the Permanent United States Mission to the United Nations, who spoke on "Nationalism and the United Nations".

Needless to say, this series added much to the already established Lecture Series tradition of serious and illuminating discussions of problems vital to our political, social, and cultural life.

Operation Foreign Student

Operation Foreign Student brought to Elmhurst College another foreign student through the contributions of the student body and faculty. This year Miss Grace Chui of Hong Kong was awarded the assistance of this foreign student committee. Grace comes to Elmhurst as a junior, having completed her first two years of college at Kendall college.

The purpose of the O. F. S. is to create better world understanding and provide Christian fellowship with other people of the world. All funds of the O. F. S. come from financial drives which extend through the lenten period. Dr. R. G. Schade has served as faculty advisor for the group for many years. Warren Mueller was chairman this year.

Hungarian Club

The Hungarian Club, under the direction of Reverend A. Molnar, has participated in several events during the year. The first of the events was "S. C. A. International Night" where members of the club performed a Hungarian folkdance. The second event was the presentation of a pageant to Chicagoans at the Chicago Museum of Science and Industry, December 6, as part of the museum's "Christmas Around the World" display. The Hungarian Club has participated in this display, which presents the Christmas traditions of twenty different countries, for four years.

Besides the pageant and the folk dance, the club also placed on exhibit a Christmas tree decorated in the Hungarian tradition. The tree was brightly ornamented with gilded walnuts, pine cones, cookies, and stick candy wrapped with gold and red paper.

Who's Who

The purpose of Who's Who is to award special recognition to seniors who have shown excellence in all the fields of their college life. Who's Who is an award which indicates a degree of excellence which no other form of recognition bestows.

Judgement of candidates for this special award is based upon four factors: scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Each of the individuals awarded Who's Who recognition must have achieved a definite standard in all of these four areas.

It is the aim of Who's Who to reward those students who have been consistent leaders in school activities, who have made definite contributions to the betterment of Elmhurst, and who are promising future members of society.

Those members of the senior class of 1958 who were given the Who's Who award are: Allen Smith, Joanne Grollmus, Richard Stanger, John Faulstich, and Jack Jensen. Their names are familiar to the Elmhurst College campus as active members in the Student Union, class leadership, through their scholastic achievement, and their sincere, understanding character.

The co-chairmen for this year's Who's Who Committee were Dorothy Giesebricht and Fred Jarka.

Theatre & Theatre Guild

This season's Elmhurst College Theatre produced four varied styles of dramatic presentation. Opening the season with Robinson Jeffers' adaption of Euripes' classic Greek tragedy, Medea, College Theatre continued with an impressionistic rendition of Truman Capote's The Grass Harp.

Early second semester, in cooperation with "Religion in Life Week," the Theatre presented Lost in the Stars, Kurt Weill's musical version of Alan Paton's Cry, the Beloved Country, as its third production.

The fourth and final production of the '57-'58 season was designed to provide an interesting and stimulating theatrical experience for the entire Elmhurst College student body. Presenting "Project Platea," a series of nine one-act plays, student directed in arena form, College Theatre opened its doors to uninitiated talent.

The Elmhurst College Theatre Guild, an auxiliary of College Theatre, was one of the igniting sparks that helped the Theatre burn bright this season. Through its assistance, as an educational and training laboratory for students interested in the art form theatre, students were afforded the opportunity to design and build their own scenery for Medea, and to work from drawings of a graduate designer for The Grass Harp.

The Guild found a most rewarding experience working hand-in-hand with the large cast of Lost in the Stars, and with the many members of "Project Platea." Since Theatre Guild is an educational activity, it hopes in future years to continue the growth of its main objective—to know good theatre and to introduce good theatre to the campus.

This was a big year in the history of WRSE, the campus radio station. As the station celebrated its tenth birthday note was taken of the vast improvements made during the years, this year in particular. The studio was redecorated by the staff for greater broadcasting efficiency. With this efficiency it was possible to offer a diversified program schedule that met the demands of the listening audience. Tops in popularity were the on the spot broadcasts of the important away conference football and basketball games. WRSE has come a long way in its ten years of serving the resident students. Happy Birthday and many more!

Women's Union

Women's Union, one of the larger and older organizations of the Elmhurst family, inaugurated some traditions new to the campus this year besides continuing their usual program and activities.

"Bachelor's Holiday" marked its name in the annals of the college as the women of the school spent two days of fun and fellowship catering to the desires and wishes of the male population. The huskier sex enjoyed having their books lugged around for them, their coats removed in service, and various other acts of "kindness." "Bachelor's Holiday" was climaxed with the annual Co-ed Dance, a formal affair for which the girls had the choice and also the tab.

Other programs which the Women's Union carried out were the Big and Little Sister Activities, which introduced the freshmen women to the college, the gala circus for the orphaned and homeless, and the May breakfast at which the newly elected officers were installed. This year the Union revised their constitution, thus bringing it up to date in accordance with new ideas and changes of policy.

Picnic time for big and little sisters.

Circus time for the homeless ones.

Dance time for every one—girls' choice.

The Homecoming Court

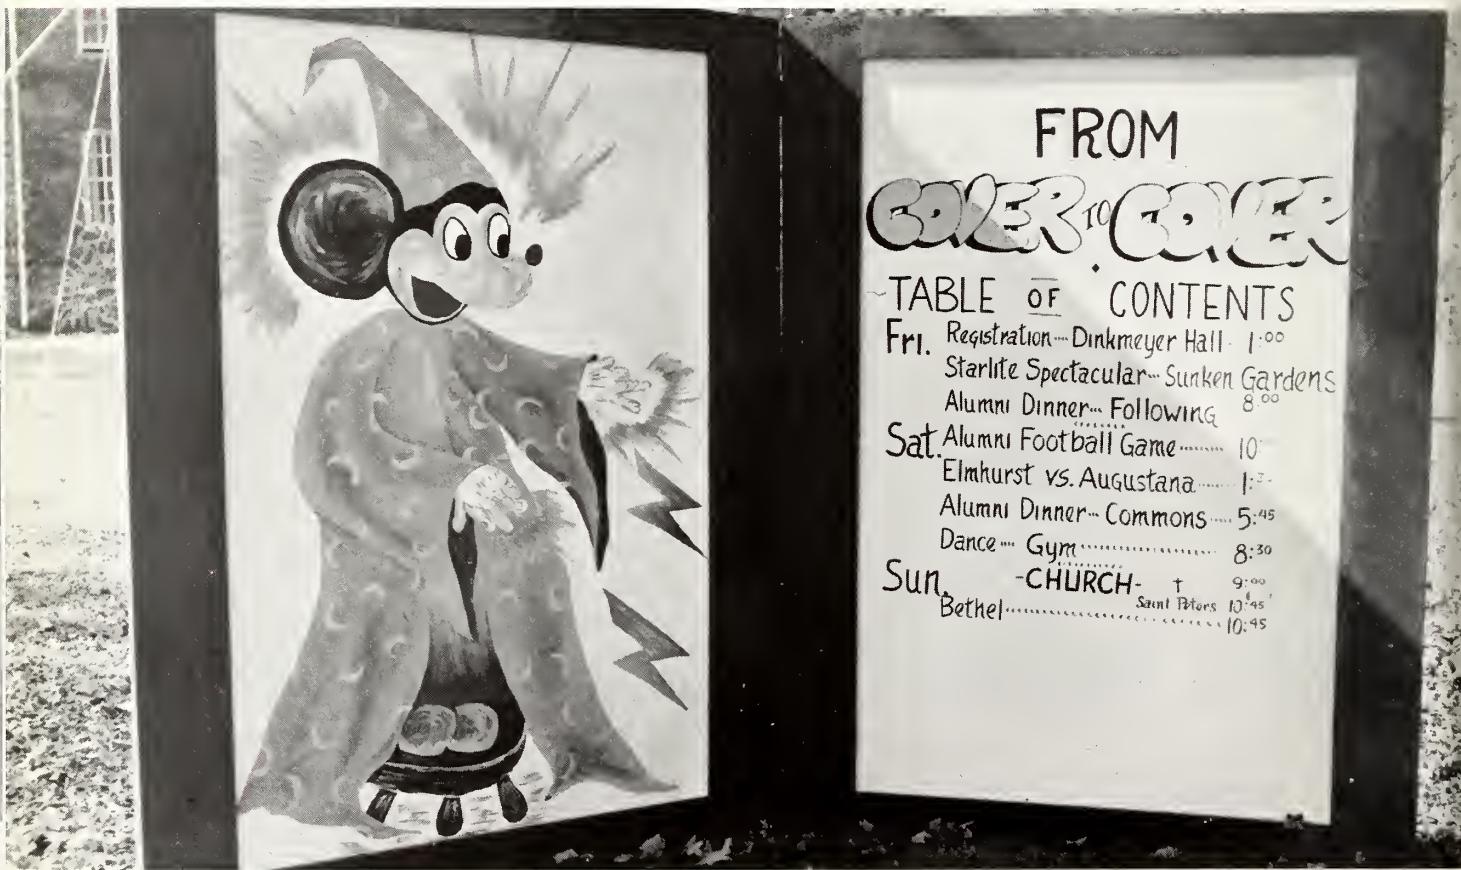

1957 Homecoming

Homecoming at Elmhurst was new and different this year. Entitled "From Cover to Cover," the entire weekend dealt mainly with the theme of books or stories, everyone trying to connect their projects with a book title. The traditional review on Friday night was not traditional at all; it set a new precedent as a "Pagant Under the Stars—The 87th Page." This pageant was held in the Sunken Gardens for the first time. Flood and spotlights brilliantly illuminated the gardens into a spectacular arena for the big show.

Tableaus depicted memorable events of years gone by, these being especially significant to the alumni from those years. Pantomime and narration were employed to show the growth from freshman year on the Elmhurst campus. The homecoming queen, Miss Nancy Schaad, and her court were presented by the President of the Student Union, Dick Stanger. The torch parade was followed by the presentation of the Freshman Class President in the passing of the Key Ceremony.

Decorations were confined to the campus this year due to the fact that the parade was eliminated. The object of this was to provide decorations that were bigger and better than in previous years. Corresponding with the topic "From Cover to Cover" various story scenes emerged throughout the campus. Depictions of "Treasure Island," "Paul Revere" "Little Red Riding Hood," "The Dictionary," "Don Quixote" and many others appeared. The musical organizations won with their decoration, depicting the theme from "The King and I."

In the gala decorated gymnasium Saturday evening, Nancy Schaad and her court were ushered in to the music of the traditional Homecoming Dance, climaxing a weekend of pleasure and excitement. Sunday afternoon, Dr. Stanger, in the extinguishing of the brazier, ceremoniously and formally marked the end of Homecoming, 1957, truly a weekend for Elmhurst to remember.
